103 YEARS AND COUNTING

25th Anniversary, 1940

Papers, 2012
Monograph 1, 1993

PCNS marked its 103rd anniversary this year, and in that time, our organization has generated a great deal in the way of publications, medals, tokens, and other exnumia.

Join us for an extended sharing session on November 28, giving you and opportunity to show and/or see PCNS memorabilia live and in person.

Remember: This meeting is at Fort Mason and begins at 7:30pm.

the old downtown post office on the reverse (1906), an orchestrian (misspelling of orchestrion) token from the 4th Cliff House (1900-1905), a Cliff House bar token with manager's names Wilkins and Pearson appearing (1809s) a five cent Cliff House slot machine token bearing a W for Wilkins (1900-1905), a Cliff House elongated cent (1940s) and a Sutro Baths towel check (1930s-1940s or earlier).

Jerry also showed a Whitney Brothers game machine token from the founders of Playland at the Beach (1930s). Another group of tokens Jerry identified as forgotten places in and around Ocean Beach. These included a five cent slot machine token from the M&M Hotel (1906-1920), a ten cent drink token from the Ocean Beach House run by C.R. Kroger (1890-1900), slot machine and drink tokens from the Seal Rock House (1850s-1914), a token from the Sutro Heights Casino, Herman L. "Baby" Schmidt proprietor, a drink token from the Golden Gate Villa, operated by the Hagerty Brothers at 49th and D, Ocean Blvd (1895-1896) and a drink token from the Golden Gate Villa, operated by the Leonhardt and Hagerty at 49th and D, Ocean Blvd (1897-1898). For the curious, 49th and D is now La Playa St (49th Ave) and Fulton (D St).

While the presentation primarily focused on tokens exnumia of the Ocean Beach District of San Francisco, Jerry also brought along ocean beach related ephemera including, post cards, plates, cups, newspaper clippings and scrap books full of related material. Beyond the recognizable ruins of Sutro Baths and a modern Cliff House, very little remains of these forgotten places; drinking parlors, gambling establishments and family entertainment along the iconic stretch of Ocean Beach.

STEP UP!

As the year comes to an end, it's time to elect officers for 2019. We're always looking for fresh faces to get involved in the leadership of PCNS. Note that "fresh faces" can include well-rested veterans as well as well as relative newcomers.

Nominations are now open, so feel free to talk about your potential candidacy with a current or former officer (see the back page for a list of current officers).

NEW MEMBER APPLICATION

Per PCNS Bylaws, Mr. Fung will become an Active Member at the November 28 meeting.
