PCNS COPYRIGHT POLICY

As Amended February 22, 2012

1. PUBLICATION RIGHTS.

PCNS obtains all rights to publication and distribution of submissions. The material may not be under consideration for publication elsewhere, and may not be offered for publication elsewhere while PCNS has publication rights. PCNS retains publication rights for up to one full calendar year after the year in which the material was submitted. If PCNS publishes the work during that period, PCNS retains the right to make and distribute additional copies of all or any part of the PCNS publication in which the author's work appears via any format and any media including electronic distribution. All other rights revert to the author immediately following publication by PCNS, or after the calendar year following the submission year should PCNS fail to publish the work in that period. (The term "publication" includes all printed, digital, web-based, or program-presentation forms of dissemination.)

2 COPYRIGHT

By submitting material to PCNS for publication, the author is stating that no copyright restriction exists on any of the material, including photos, drawings, or illustrations of any kind. PCNS is granted copyright permission to use all submitted materials as outlined under its First Publication Rights. Authors must credit all quotes and any public domain materials. Authors are responsible for assuring they have copyright (or permission to submit for publication) for all materials submitted to PCNS.
