

Pacific Coast Numismatic Society
December 26, 2012

Board Meeting

President Stephen Huston called the board meeting to order at 7:10 PM.

Board members present included: Stephen Huston, Bill Hyder, and Ed Treuting.

Members present included: Ken Takahashi, Mark William Clark, Jerry Schimmel, Michael Wehner, and Glen Risdon.

The secretary's report was accepted with changes proposed via email.

The Treasurer's Report showed total receipts of $160.93 and expenditures of $529.93 between November 28 and December 26. The balance of all funds on the 26th was $12,643.69. The year end report showed that our expenses were $1,105.19 more than our income excluding a $2,000 donation.

President Huston had the papers publication available for distribution at the meeting.

Bill Hyder reported that 10 octagonal medals had been silver-plated at a cash cost of $10 each.

Bill Hyder volunteered to speak in January and to contact John Jencek about speaking (arrangements made for the March meeting).

The meeting was adjourned at 7:20.

The General Meeting was called to order at 7:50.

Members present included: Stephen Huston, Bill Hyder, Glen Risdon, Ken Takahashi, Ed Treuting, Mark William Clark, Jerry Schimmel, Michael Wehner, and Federico Castillo.

President Huston asked for the existing officers and board to be re-elected by acclamation after requesting additional nominations from the floor. No other nominations were offered from the floor and the officers were re-elected.

The President then announced that we had received word of the passing of member Peter Barchuk. Peter was a 46-year member of the PCNS.

Exhibits included:

Bill Hyder shared the new book, The Private Sketchbook of George T. Morgan.

Michael Wehner exhibited a satirical Condor Token showing the Uncharitable Monopolizer from 1800.

Jerry Schimmel brought a Widow's Mite from Judea circa 100 B.C. and a Palestine token from the Jerusalem Hotel in Jaffe ca. 1890.

Glen Risdon shared coins from New Zealand.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to the annual potluck and socializing.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30.